I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copy of a Letter I received from Captain Graves, of His Majesty's Ship Blenheim, giving an Account of the Capture of a Privateer by the Boats of that Ship, in Fort Royal Bay, Martinique.
The Capture of Two more of the Enemy's Privateers is set forth in a Letter from Captain Young-husband, of the Ofprey. The brave and handsome Conduct of Lieutenant Henderson, and those in the Boats under his Command, is truly meritorious; | Prize, he the next Day chaced and captured La and I trust fuch Display of the Gallantry of our Officers and Men will foon make these Piccaroons repent their Temerity. On the 26th Ult. between Tobago and Grenada, the Centaur, after a Chafe of Seven Hours, captured the Vigilante Schooner Privateer, of Two Guns and Forty Men, well armed with Musketry: The Capture of this Vessel is particularly fortunate, as the has, from her fuperior Sailing and Management, done much Injury to the Trade.

I have also the Satisfaction to acquaint you of the Recapture of the Brig Earl St. Vincent, from Dublin bound to Baroadoes, and a Swedish Schooner by His Majesty's Sloop St. Lucia; they had been cap-tured Three Days before by the L'Harmonie Privateer, of Martinique, and who only escaped the Vigilance of Captain Shipley, by throwing her Guns overboard, and fawing down her Gunwales.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, Sc. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majefly's Ship the Monarch, off Ramfgate, the 6th Inflant.

SIR, ENCLOSE, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter which I have received from Captain Owen, of His Majesty's Ship Immortalité, acquainting me, that His Majesty's Gun-Brig the Archer, and the Griffin Hired Cutter, (the Crew of the former being reinforced by Lieutenant Payne and fome of the Immortalite's Men,) had captured One of the Enemy's Gun-Vessels, a Dogger, a Schuyt, and Two Blankenberg Fishing-Boats, apparently Part of a Convoy proceeding to Boulogne. I have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

> Immortalité, at Anchor on the Edge of the Bank de Baas, Boulogne, S. E. Haif S. Four or Five Miles, Wed-

My LORD, nefday, January 4, 1804.

AVING last Night reinforced the Crew of the Archer with some Men from this Ship, and pushed her in close Shore, she was fortunate enough to fall in with and capture the French Lugger Gun-Vessel, No. 432, mounting an Eighteen and a Twelve-Pounder, commanded by an Ensign de Vaisfeau, with Five Seamen, a Lieutenant, and Twentyfix Grenadiers of the Thirty-fixth Regiment of the Line, fome of whom, with Two Seamen, escaped in her Boat during the running Fight, which she continued for a Quarter of an Hour with her Stern Gun and Musketry. The Archer had Part of her Rigging cut, but no one materially hurt on either Side.

The Archer and Griffin afterwards captured a Dogger, a Schuyt, and Two Blankenberg Fishing-Boats, which the Prisoners report to be Part of a Convoy, which, with a Prame of Sixteen Guns, and Five or Six Gun-Veffels escaped under the Land in the dark; fome, I understand, laden with Provisions and Stores. The Schuyt has Gin, and the Fishing Boats Timbers and Knees for Boats; each Veffel had Three or Four Soldiers on board.

Lieutenant Sheriff, of the Archer, has done every Thing I could possibly wish or expect from his Zeal; and Lieutenant Payne, of this Ship, who commanded the Boat and Party affilting the Archer, executed that Service with his usual Alacrity, and the Commander of the Griffin has my Thanks for the Share he bore in bringing off the latter Vessels, which was effected under a very heavy Fire from the Shore, to which they were as close as possible.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majefly's Ships and Veffels at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bar: dated on board His Majefly's Ship the Centaur, off Martinique, the 26th November 1403.

ARLY this Morning as the Centaur was paffing the Cape de Salines, on the Island of Martinique, the was fired at, and feveral Shot exchanged in paffing; I immediately directed Captain Maxwell to Itand on far enough, that by tacking, we could fetch inco Petit Ance D'Arlette, where we anchored, and landed the greater Part of the Marines under Captain Crozier, and Forty Seamen commanded by Lieurenants Maurice and Ayfeough, to destroy it; on the first Alarm the National Guards had affembled to aid Fourteen Cannoniers of the Marine Artillery, stationed in the Battery, but by the rapid and active Movements of the Officers and Men on this Service, the Enemy had not Time to arrange themselves in Desence of the parrow and fleep Path to the Eminence, where was planted a Brass Two-Pounder, and on the Approach of our Men, sew to the Morne, and so disperfed themselves in its thick Woods, that only one Cannonier fell into our Hands; the Battery, mounting Six Twenty-four-Pounders, was completely destroyed, and the Guns. &c. thrown over the Precipice; but, unfortunately, in the Explosion of the Magazine a little too foon, One Seaman was killed; Lieutenant Maurice, 1st of the Centaur, Captain Crozier and Licutenaut Walker, of the Marines, with Six Men, wounded, but only one private Ma rine badly.

On drawing near the Bay of Point D'Arlette, between the Grande and Petite Ance of that Name, we discovered a Battery of Three Guns, (Two proved to be Forty-two Pounders, the other a Thirty-two Pounder,) and People laying down; however the Ship was anchored in a Polition to flank it, had they thought proper to annoy us, and Lieutenant Domett, with Lieutenant McLaughlan, of the Marines, threw the Guns over the Cliff, and burnt and deflroyed the Carriages, Barracks, and Ammunition most perfectly, the People having abandoned it on their Approach; from this I promife myfelf much Aid to the blockading Ships should the Enemy send out a Reinforcement, and also very convenient for Anchoring.

I have the Honor to be, &c. SAM. HOOD.

SIR.

Herewith transmit you Copy of a Letter from Captain Graves, of His Majetly's Ship Blenheim, stating the Capture of the Harmonie Privateer, in Marin Bay, by the Boats of that Ship and the Drake, under the Orders of Captain Ferris; and the Surprize and Deltruction of Fort Dunkirk, by the Marines under the Command of Lieutenant Beatie. The judicious Manner in which this Service was planned, the Gallantry and Zeal of those Officers who executed it, deferve my warmest Lucomiums, and I beg Leave to give them my firongest Recommendation to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the Honor to be, &c. SAM. HOOD.

Blenkeim off Martinique,

SIR, 17th Nov. 1803. HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on the 14th Instant, the French Privateer Schooner L'Harmonie, with a Prize, having put into the Harbour of Marin in the Bay of St. Ann, Martinique, induced me to fuggest a Plan for the Capture of this Vessel, more destructive to Commerce than any other which has appeared in these Seas; and for this Purpose I attempted, against a strong Sea Breeze and Lee Current, to beat up from off the Diamond Rock to the Place where the lay at Anchor. It was not until the 16th in the Morning that I was able to accomplish it, when, having reconnoitred the Harbour of Marin, together with the Batteries on each Side of it, and also one above the Town, I determined on the Attempt. I therefore ordered Sixty Seamen belonging to His Majetty's Ship under my Command, with Lieutenants Cole and Furber, and a Detachment of Sixty Marines of the fame Ship, under the Command of Lientenants Beatle and Boyd, to carry the Enterprize into Execution: The former in their Boats to attack the Privateer, and the latter at the fame time to endeavour to furprife, or in any event to florm, Fort Dunkirk, a Battery of Nine Guns on the Starhoard Side of the Harbour. It was necessary to do fo, to cut off the Militia from rendezvouting on Marin Point, which, being immediately in the Track of coming out, and where doubtlefs they would have been joined by the Troops from the Fort, would have much annoyed the Boats on their Return. Drake having joined me, and Captain Ferris volunteering his Services, I directed him to take the Command of the Seamen, and to add to them Fourteen from the Drake. All Things being prepared, the Boats with the Seamen towed by the Diake, and the Marines in Four Boats towed by the Swift Hired Cutter, at Eleven P. M. proceeded off the Month of Marin Harbour, and by ellimating the Time it would take for the Boats to row up to the Privateer, which Veffel lay Three Miles from the Entrance of the Harbour, both Parties fet off fo timely as to commence the Attack at the same Instant; and I am happy to add, that about Three A.M. on the following Morning, by very spirited and judicious Attacks, both Parties succeeded; the Fort was completely furprifed, the Prifoners, Fifteen in Number, taken, and fent on board the Cutter, the Guns were difmounted and spiked, their Carriages totally destroyed, and the Magazine blown up; the Barracks were spared, as a large and ripe Field of Canes adjoining must have inevitably been destroyed had they been let Fire to.

The Boats with the Scamen passed one Battery undiscovered, but the Privateer was on her Guard, and commenced a very heavy Fire on them, who nevertheless in the most prompt and gallant Manner boarded, and in a few Minutes carried her. Two Men were found dead on her Deck, and Fourteen were wounded; as many of the Enemy threw themfelves into the fea, many must have been drowned.

I am forry to add that the Blenheim had One Man killed, and Two wounded, and the Drake

Three wounded, One dangeroufly.

The Harmonie was commanded by Citizen Nover, had Eight Carriage-Guns, and Sixty-fix Men at the Attack, Forty-four only of whom were found at the Time of Surrender. The Boats and Privatcer repassed the Fort on the Larhoard Side of the Harbour within Mufquet Shot, but happily escaped from a heavy Fire unhurt.

The spirited Manner in which Captain Ferris led the Boats to the Attack, and the gallant Conduct of Lieutenants Cole and Furber, the Petty Officers, and Men on the Occasion, merit my warmelt Praise; nor can I do too much Justice to the Conduct of Lieutenant Beatie, commanding the Detachment of Royal Marines, Lieutenant Boyd, the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, who in the most foldier-like Manner, after being challenged and fired upon by Two Centinels, and perfectly ignorant of the Nature and Number of the Troops they had to contend with, pushed directly into the Fort with fixed Bayonets, when the Enemy cried for Quarter. By the Silence with which the Battery was carried, One Hundred Militia of the Fort of Saint Ann's were cut off from the Point of Rendezvous, and thus the Place, to answer all our Purposes, secured without the Lofs of a Man.

Enclosed is an Account of the Guns rendered useless, and Stores destroyed, at Fort Dunkirk.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

THOMAS GRAVES.

Copy of another Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majefly's Ships and Veffels at the Lecavard Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Sea, 2d December 1803.

S we lay at Anchor in Fort Royal Bay, Mar-S we lay at Anchor in A to Copy Salines, Yesterday tinique, close to Cape des Salines, Yesterday Morning, a Schooner with a Sloop in tow, was working up from to Leeward; about Eight o'Clock being within Six Miles, and perceiving her Intention for St. Pierre's, I directed Captain Maxwell to weigh and give Chace, and was not discovered until all Sail was fet, when the Schooner and Sloop fe-parated; I fent the Sarah Advice Boat, after the Sloop, and the Schooner Ma Sophie, belonging to Guadaloupe, of Eight Guns (which were thrown overboard in the Chace,) and Forty-fix Men, was captured by this Ship after a Run of Twenty-four Leagues; the Sloop her Prize, retaken by the Sarah, was cut out of Courland Bay, Tobago, having on board only a few Hogsheads of Sugar.

I have the Honor to be, &c. SAM. HOOD. (Signed)

P. S. Since writing the before mentioned, Lieus tenant Domet, in the Vigilant Tender, with the Sarah Advice Boat, burnt a Schooner in Ance de Serron, of Seventy Tons, and destroyed the Batter; Chateau Margot of Three Eighteen Pounders, without any Lofs on our Part-A Party of the Enemy came down and fired on them, of which they killed one Man, and wounded fome others.

SIR.

CCOMPANYING this, I fend you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Lieutenant Foley of the Hercule, commanding the Gipfey Tender, stating the Destruction of a French Privateer.

Captain Roberts of the Snake also fends me an Account of a French Privateer which he had been in Chace of the whole Day of the 10th Instant; and in endeavouring to avoid him after dark, got on Shore upon Rocky Point, near the East End of this Island. The Prisoners, Sixty in Number he has I have the Honor to be, &c. fent in. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

His Majesty's Schooner Gipsey, Port Royal, SIR, November 4, 1803.

HAVE the Honor to inform you, that on the 19th of October last, at Four P. M. Cape Maize, bearing North, distant Six or Seven Leagues, I chaced, and, after a Running Fight of Two House and Forty Minutes, drove on Shore, and completely destroyed a French Privateer Schooner, mounting Two long Eighteen-Pounders, and full of Men.

I should have endeavoured to get her off, but the Night being very dark, and the Wind freshening from the S. E. was obliged to make fail for the Safety of His Majesty's Schooner under my Command, and join the Packet, which Ship I saw safe, agreeable to your Orders. I have, &c. E. K. FOLEY.

Cosy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Thornbrough to the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, See dated on board His Majefly's Ship
the Ruby, off the Texel, the 17th Infant.

HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that Captain Wooldridge, of His Majelly's Sloop Scourge, returned to me this Afternoon off the Texel, having cut out of the Vlie Roads an English Ship of Four Hundred Tons Burthen, laden with Timber, from Memel bound to Hull, which Ship he has fent to Yarmouth-Roads.

I beg Leave to observe to your Lordship, that, from the very intricate Passage into the Anchorage at this Season of the Year, which was planned by Captain Wooldridge himself, decidedly against the Opinion of his Pilots, and which fucceeded in the thiell Extent, thereby depriving the Enemy of for valuable a Cargo, reflects no kf. Credit on him than it does on Licutenant Hughes, who conducted, and the Officers and Men who executed, fo hazardous an Enterprize, under the Fire of the Batteries on the Island, and fo many other Disadvantages. I have the Honor to be, &c. EDW. THORNBROUGH.

Scourge, off the Vie Island, January 11, 1804.

Have the Flonor of informing you, that in Execution of your Orders of Yesterday's Date, on my Arrival off the Vlie Land, in His Majesty's Sloop, I spoke the Prussian, from Amsterdam, who informed me, that a large Ship, with Prize Colours flying, was lying in the Vlie Roads, waiting a Wind to proceed up the Passage; and that he understood from the Pilots she was an English Ship, laden with Naval Stores; confidering that to deprive the Enemy of a Ship of that Description was of material Consequence. I determined on attempting to cut her out; for which Purpose, after dark, His Majesty's was anchored in the State Mille Passage, in Four and Half Fathom Water, and within Musket-Shot of the Shere, ready to co operate with the Boats, which were detached about Midnight, under the Direction of Lieutenant W. J. Hughes, the fenior Officer, and with fuch good Order was the Atrack conducted by him, that the Ship was boarded and brought out, although lying immediately under the Batteries, and mounting herfelf Eight Guns, without the finallelt Lofs; and proves to be a Ship from Memel, laden with Timber, Four Hundred Tons Butthen, taken on the 19th of December last, by L'Union Dutch Brig Privateer of Eighteen Guns, on the Coast of Norway. Mr. Williamson, the Purser, Mr. Hepburn, the Boatswain, and Messrs. Dale and Daly, Midshipmen, who were Volunteers in the Boats, Mr. Hughes speaks in the handsomeil Manner of ; indeed the Behaviour of every Man and Officer in the Ship was is much to my Satisfaction, that had the Refillance been ever fo great I have little Doubt I am, &c. Wm WOOLURIDGE of the Succels.

Admiralty-Office, January 31, 1804. Copy of a Letter from Captain William Selby, Commander of His Majefly's Ship the Cerberus, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Spithead, the 26th Inflant. SIR,

BEG you will be pleased to lay before my Lorda Commissioners of the Admiralty, the enclosed Copy of a Letter written to Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, stating my having captured, in His Majesty's Ships under my Command, the National Gun

lam, &c. W. SELBY.

His Majely's Ship Cerberus, off Cape La SIR, Hague, 26th January, 1804. IN pursuance of your Orders, I Yesterdayat Onc P. M. weighed in His Majelly's Ship Cerberus, under my Command, from Guernsey Roads, and having passed through the Little Russel, I shaped a Courle for Cape la Hague, in order, if possible, to look into Cherbourgh before dark; in our Approach to the above Cape, we discovered a Convoy of the Enemy, confishing of Four armed Vessels, steering to the Eallward. We had the good Fortune to cut them off before they reached the Cape, which obliged them to anchor. The Strength of the Tide prewented our reaching them.

I therefore hauled the Wind to the Southward, under a Press of Sail, until after dark, when we bore up for Cape la Hague, and at Midnight faw them coming round the Cape, but so close to the Laud that it was confidered dangerous to take the Ship near them. However, a heavy Squall of Wind driving them a little further from the Shore, we fucceeded in capturing the National Gun Vessel Le Chameau, and driving one on the Rocks, the rest effected their Escape, owing to the Vicinity of the Rocks, which at that Time was not more than a Cable's length from us.

The above Gun Vessel is Three Hundred Tons Burthen, is quite new, carrying Four long Six-Pounders and Two Swivels, and commanded by Francis Galliare Enfign de Vaisseau, having on board at the Time of Capture Fifty-eight Men, Twenty-one of which are Soldiers, fully accoutered. She is calculated to carry between Two and Three Hundred Troops, and appears to be a Gun Vessel fit for His Majesty's Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
WILLIAM SELBY.

Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, Bart. K. B. Commander in Chief, Guernsey.

Admiralty-Office, February 7, 1804. ISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received at this Office, from Rear-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica:

Echo, Port Royal, Sept. 10, 1803. AVING in my Letter of the 17th July, transmitted you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Captain Bissell, of the Racoon's Letter, on the very spirited Manner in which the Capture of the National Brig Lodi had taken place at Anchor in Leogane; it is now, with great Pleasure, I add to it, his Account of the Destruction of the National Brig La Mutine, on the Coast of Cuba, wherein it appears a superior Deree of professional Abilities, with great Gallantry, rere displayed, and I trust he will be honored with heir Lordships' Protection.

Raccon, off the East End of Jamaica, SIR, 20th August 1803.

PON receiving the Intimation that the French Privateers, which were long fince supposed to have been fitting out in the Ports of Cuba, had probably put to Sea, I worked up along Shore from I were to the Fall End of Jamaica to see the from Lucca to the Eall End of Jamaica to fee the Coast clear, and then crossed over to St. Jagode la Cuba, where I faw four French Schooners at Anchor, apparently armed, I of courfe watched the Port very narrowly, and in a few Days I fell in with Three of them at Daylight in the Morning, Two of which I have captured, after tedious Chales, from their fe-parating on different Courfes, and the other I drove on Shore in a fmall Bay where the was inevitably loft. On the Wednesday the 17th, at One P. M. I observed a Brig coming along Shore, which foon after hand the Wednesday and the State of hauled her Wind to speak a Schooner which had been avoiding us all Day. At Three they bore up together, under all Sail, with a strong Breeze:—I shood off until certain of setching them, and then made Sail in Shore. At a Quarter past Four the Brig hoisted French Colours and fired a Gun, still kerning within Half a Mile of the Shore under a keeping within Half a Mile of the Shore under a Press of Sail. At Twenty Minutes past Four she fired her Broadfide at us, and attempted to crofs our Hawfe, which I was fortunate enough to prevent, for I ordered the Helm to be put hard-a-port to board her, though going Eight Knots at the Time, and fired a Broadfide at her, which, from being nearly aboard each other, brought down his Studdingfails, Topfails, &c. he then luffed up and ran on Shore on the Rocks in a fmall Bay, and struck his Colours. To avoid a similar Fate I was compelled to heave in Stays; and when we wore round our Stern was nearly in the Breakers. In this Position we fired our opposite Broadside to effect her Destruction. In about half an Hour she host Tacks near her again, and I made several that Tacks near her again. short Tacks near her, firing upon her in paf-fing. Towards Sunset her Mainmast went over the Side, and she fell on her Beam Ends. At this Moment Mr. John Thompson, the Master, asked my Permiffion to go with a few picked Men, and en-deavour to burn her; an Enterprife it would have been unjustifiable to admit of undertaking, from her having landed Boats full of armed Men, and linedthe Shores, but the Gallantry of the Master could not fail of exciting my Admiration, and will, I am fure, meet your Approbation. I watched the Brig all Night, and in the Morning her Malts were all overboard, and the lay a perfect Wreck full of Water. I have fince learned her Name is La Mutine, National Brig, carrying Eighteen long Eighteen-Pounders, and was full of Men, from Port au Paix bound to St. Jago; but I have not heen able to obtain the Name of her Captain.

I regret that I was not able to fecure to the Service fo line a Vessel as La Mutine appeared to be; but, under the Circumstance of having the Two Lieutenants and Forty-two Men absent in Prizes out of this Sloop's Company, you will, I trust, feel fatisfied that no Effort was left untried, and that Mr. Thompson the Master, and the remaining Part of the Crew, have performed their Duty on this Occasion with Credit.

The Schooner which was in Company made her Escape, notwithstanding the Endeavour of Lieutenant Wright, in Charge of One of the Prizes, who used all possible Means to disable her.

Racoon, Port Royal Harbour, Jamaica, SIR, Odober 20, 1803. I BEG Leave to inform you, that in the Afternoon of the 13th October, when standing in for the Coast of Cuba, I observed feveral Vessels to Windward coming close along Shore, all of whom hauled in towards Cumberland Harbour before Sunfet; having heard of the Evacuation of Port-au-Prince, I anchored in a fmall Bay, in Expectation of feeing them coming past us in the Night; Daylight of the 14th discovered to us Nine or Ten Sail, a sew Miles to the Windward of us nearly bccalmed; I got under weigh with a fine Land Wind, and chaced them, at half-patt Six, a Brig, Schooner, and Cutter, (full of Men,) hoifted French Colours, and fired Guus to Windward. The Brig attempted to get in Shore of us, while the other Two, with the Affistance of their Sweeps and Boats, endeavoured to join her. The Land Breeze however carried me within Gun Shot of the Brig, and after firing a Broadfide or Two at her, the struck. I had only 'Time to fend an Officer, and a fmall Party of Men to fecure lier, before my Attention was called to the Schooner and Cutter, who had by this Time got nearly within Gun-Shot, and were firing at us. Calms and baffling Airs prevented me from getting mearer to them till Ten o'Clock, when the Sea Breeze fet in; at Eleven they bore up together, evidently with a Determination to board us. The Cutter steering for our Bows, and the Schooner hauling out to pass astern, I shortened Sail to receive them, keeping the Brig under fussicient Command to counteract their Defign; when within Piftol-Shot I fired a Broadfide at the Cutter (which was as speedily returned with long Guns and Musquetry), then wore round, and fired the other into the Schooner, and so on alternately keeping up a running Fight, and preventing either of them from raking us. This Kind of engaging lasted more than an Hour, both Schooner and Cutter keeping up an incessant Fire of Musquetry; nor was it until the Cutter was literally heaten to a Wreck, and had many Men kill ed, that she struck her Colours. The Schooner seesing her Companion fall, made off under all Sail ing her Companion fall, made off under all Sail. Lieutenant Lawrence took Possession of the Cutter with peculiar Alacrity, and I then made Sail after the Schooner with a fresh Breeze. At One P M. I again got within Gun-Shot of her, and after firing a few Shot she surrendered without further Resislance. After gaining Possession of the Schooner I chased another Brig (which proved to be an American), then stood in Shore to rejoin the Brig I had taken in the Morning, but had the Mortification to find, that while I was engaging the Schooner and Cutter, they had overpowered the Officer, and had run her on Shore on the Rocks, where they had all landed with their Arms. I have however got all my Men back The Brig was called La Petite Fille, National Gun Brig, commanded by Monsieur Piquet, Lieute-nant de Vaisseau, and had on hoard One Hundred and

Eighty Troops, including about Fifty Officers of all

Shark, Port Royal, October 24, 1803. 1 Ranks. The Schooner La June Acle of Six small Guns, commanded by M. Serin, Lieutenant de Vaiffeau, and had on board Eighty Troops. The Cutter L'Amelie, commanded by Monfieur du Puy, Enfign de Vaisscau, and carrying Four Long Guns and many Swivels, with upwards of Seventy Troops. The Two latter were also National Vessels, and had on board Twenty-two Officers.

The Commanders of these Vessels have fince told me that they were apprifed of our being on the Coast, and that they had planned their Mode of Attack in Cumberland Harbour, having determined on boarding us; their Lofs is about Forty killed and wounded, I feel great Pleafure in informing you that I had not a fingle Man killed; the only Perfon hurt was Mr. John Thompson the Master, who received a violent Contofion, in the early Part of the Bufiness, which deprived me of the farther Services of a truly brave and meritorious Officer. The active Conduct of Lientenant Lawrence, throughout the Day, has fully chablished the Character you gave him, with his Commission. From the perfect Satisfaction the Crewhad given me on former Occa-fions, and their steady and resolute Behaviour on this, I have no doubt if the Three Vesiels had succeeded in boarding (which, had the Calm continued, it would be extremely difficult, if not impossible to prevent) they would have met with a Refistance worthy of British Seamen, and that they would have had only to boast of a very dear bought Conquest.

The Damage the Racoon has sustained is immaterial, being principally in her Sails; but the very disabled State of the Prizes, and having expended nearly all the Shot on board, will, I hope, plead my excule for returning to Port before I was regularly recalled.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Monsieur,

JE viens de recevoir la Lettre que vous m'avez fait l'Honneur de m'ecrire. Comme vos Propofitions font inadmissibles, je vons prie de considerer ma Lettre precedente comme non avenue.

J'ai l'Honneur d'etre, Monsseur, avec benucoup Consideration. D. ROCHAMBEAU. de Consideration.

Port Royal, 18th Dec. 1803. SIR. HAVING, in my Letter No. 3, by this Conveyance stated to you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that Geneal Rachambeau had made Propos Is for capitulating, which, though inadmissible, I thought foon must lead to others more reasonable; the Event has justified r y Oph ion ; but I am forry to faythat Officer, whofe Actions are too extraordinary to account for, had, the 19th Ultimo, (previous to his Proposals to Captain Loring, through the General of Brigade, Boyé, and Commodore Barre) actually entered into a Capitulation with the Black General Deffulines, to d. liver up the Cape to him, with all the Ordnance; Ammunition, and Stores, on the 30th; I conclude, flattering himfelf that the tremendous Weather, which our Squadron was then and had been experiencing for three Weeks, would offer an Opening for Escape, but the Perseverance and Watchfulners thereof precluded him from even attempting it. On the 30th, the Colours of the Blacks were displayed at the Forts, which induced Captain Loring to dispatch Captain Bligh, to know General Defialine's fentimenta respecting General Rochambeau and his Troops, when, on his entering the Harbour, he met Commodore Barré, who prefled him in strong Terms to go on board the Surveillante, and enter into fome Capitulation, which would put them under our Protection, and prevent the Blacks from finking them with red-hot Shot, as they had threatened, and were preparing to do, which Captain Bligh complied with, when they halfily brought him a few Articles they had drawn up, which he (after objecting to some particular Parts, that they agreed should be altered to carry his Interpretation on their Arrival at Jamaica) tigned, and hastened to acquaint General Desialines, that all the Ships and Veffels in Port had furrendered to His Majesty's Arms, and with great Difficulty he obtained the Promise to desist from firing, till a Wind offered for carrying them out (it then blowing hard directly into the Harbour); this Promise he at length obtained, and the first Instant the Land Breeze enabled them to fail out under French Colours, which, upon a Shot being fired athwart them, the Veffels of War fired their Broadfides, and hauled down their Colours, except the Clorinde, a large Frigate of Thirty-eight Guns, who unluckily took the Ground Abast, and was loreed to throw most of her Guns overboard, and knocked her Rudder off, when there was great Apprehension for her Safety; and I am informed by the Captains of the Squadron, that we must attribute the faving her (apparently without further Damage) to the uncommon Exertions and professional Abilities of acting Lieutenant Willoughby, with the Boats of the Hercule, who, I truft, will he honored with their Lordships' Protection.

Captain Loring, after feeing the Generality of the Prizes taken Possellion of, left the Theseus and Hercule to at a temporary Rudder to the Frigate, and lang the Remainder with them, bearing away for the Stole, and on the Second fundmout dithe General of Brigade Noailles, who communded there, to capitulate; this he declined doing, afferting he had Providens for five Months; and herewith I transmit a Copy of his Letter. The aumerous and crowded State of the Prisoners on board all the Prizes, and their being without Provisions, making it necessary for Captain Loring to proceed to Jamaica, he arrived here the Fifth with the Elephant and Blanche, also the Surveillante and Vertu Thrty-eight Gun Frigates, and various other Prizes, leaving the Pique to blackade the Mole, who anchored in this Port the Eighth, and acquainted me that General Noailles had evacuated the Night he refused to capitulate, bringing in with her Five out of the Six Vessels in which the Garrison had embarked, a Brig with the General on board only escaping. I fend a Vessel of War to England, with General Rochambeau and those Officers who are faid to have participated in his Cruchies at the Cape.

I am, &c. &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

Bellerophon, off Cape Françoise, 23d Nov. 1803. AVING received Information that General Rochambeau's Intentions are to endeavour to make his Escape in a Schooner, and observing Yesterday Afternoon several Boats pals and repals be tween the Surveillante, and an armed Schoonerlaying in the Caracol Passage. I made the Signal for the Launches armed to affemble on board the Blanche, and ordered Captain Mudge to proceed with them off the Entrance of that Paffage to intercept her, flould fine attempt to come out. I directed the Launches to be under the Command of Lieutenant Pileli of the Bellcrophon, and at Two A. M. the was very judiciously boarded and taken by the Launches of the Bellerophon and Elephant, without the Lofs of a Man killed or wounded, though for a short Time under a very small Fire from the Enemy's great Guns and small Arms; the proves to be the French National Schooner La Decouvert, commanded by Monticur Froyan, Enfign de Vaiffeau; the had mounted Six Six Pounders, and Six brafs Swivels, and Fifty-two Men; the Enemy had two Men wounded. The Officer commanding the Defiree's Launch being anxious to feeure the Paffage, got fo far to the Eulhward of the Entrance as ot to observe the Motions of the other Boats, that he infortunately could not join them, or get near-the Schooner till Daylight, or I am feifible from Bellerophon, off Fortuda, November 30, 1803.

HAVE to inform you of the Surrender of Cape François to the General Destalines on the 18th Instant, when he attacked it at the Head of the Army, and agreed with the General in Chief Rochambeau for Ten Days to complete the Evacua-

Not having received a fecoud Proposition from Rochambeau during the Suspension of Hostilities between the Two Parties, I endeavoured if possible to learn the Disposition of Dessalines, seeing his Flag displayed on the Forts, as to the Ships of War and other Vessels in the Harbour, and you will see by his Letter to me of the 27th, which I herewith transmit, as well as a Copy of mine to him, the indefinite Mode of Expression he makes Use of. I therefore fent Captain Bligh to explain with him.

On his Arrival in the Cape he met, on the Part of Rochambeau, a strong Desire to agree for the Surrender of the Ships and Vessels, which, from his Declaration to destroy them, I had no Reason to expect. The Articles of Agreement which was entered into I herewith inclose, and hope it will meet your Approbation. Captain Bligh immediately made known to Dessalines the Surrender of the Frigates and Merchant Vessels to His Britannic Majesty, and requested he would give Orders to prevent firing on them, which till then was his Intention; and, after some Hesitation, General Dessalines reluctantly complied. This Morning the Surveillante, Cerf Brig, an Hofpital Ship, and Three or Four Neutral Schooners, came out; the Whole were under Weigh in the Harbour, but owing to the fudden Change of Wind they were prevented from proceeding. I am forry to fay, the Clorinde is on Shore under Fort Saint Joseph, and I fear will be totally lost. I have taken Possession of the Vessels that are out, and lest Captain Bligh with Hercule, Desirée, and Pique, to com-plete the Evacuation of the Cape and Monte Christe, When the Elephant joins with the Vertu and Merchant Vessels I left in the Cape, I shall proceed with her and Prizes to Port Royal, leaving the Tartar to blockade the Mole.

As I have full confidence you will not refeind the Agreement with General Rochambeau, who intends, if possible, to have more time granted him to cscape, and that you will have Possession of the Town, and its Forts, this Afternoon.

I shall then be much obliged if you will fend me some experienced Pilots, to conduct a Part of my Squadron into the Harbour, to take Possession of the I have the Honor to be, &c.

EXTRACT of a Difpatch from Governor the - Honorable Frederick North, to the Right Ho norable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated Columbo, 8th July

INCLOSE to you the Deposition of a Person, stating himself to be an Eye Witness of one of the most acrocious Acts of Perfidy and Cruelty ever

Every Particular of the Narration may not be true, but it appears that Candi was attacked in the Midst of a Truce, by the first Adigaar, on the 23d (or I rather believe on the 24th) Ultimo; that Major Davie, commanding the Garrison there, capitulated on the following Day, and that after he left the Fort all the English Soldiers who accompanied him were eacherously murdered in cold Blood.

I cannot believe that Major Davie would have confented to evacuate, on any Terms less favourable than those stated in the Deposition, viz. of being allowed to proceed with Arms and Ammunition, and without Molestation, to Trincomalée, and that Care fhould be taken of the Sick whom he left behind: For the Fort was rendered, in the Opinion of most military Men, tenable against any Force that was likely to be brought against it, and large Supplies of Provisions had been fent thither, in Addition to those which Lieutenant Colonel Barbut declared to be fufficient for Six Months' Confumption, Two Months

Licutenant Hulskiffon was also on the Road from Trincomalée (as Major Davie must have known) with a Hundred Doolies, under an Escort of One Hundred and Fifty Malays; and when I heard of the Breach of the Truce, I ordered Lieutenant Colonel Hunter to proceed from Trincomalée with Two Hundred of His Majesty's 19th Regiment, and Fifty Malays, to secure the Evacuation which (had it been delayed for a Fortnight) would have been fafely effected.

But what I can still less account for, is, that Major Davie, having obtained such Terms, should have confented to lay down his Arms, when he must have felt that the Person who insitted on such an Infraction of Agreement, could have no other Defign but that of murdering him and his Men, and when he must, in common with all the Army, have known that a Corps of Forty Europeans in good Health, and of Two hundred Malays, might cut their Way through any Army of Candians to any Part of the Island.

Indeed Captain Mudge, late Commandant of Fort Macdowall, brought off his Men in Circumflances of as great Difficulty; and a small Detachment of Twenty two invalid Malays, Fourteen Convalescents of the 19th Regiment from Candi, and Sixty Seapoys under Lieutenant Nixon, Enfign Grant, and Enfign Smellie, defended themselves in a miserable little Fort of Fascines at Dembadenia, for more than a Week, against an immense Multitude collected by the fecond Adigaar, after they had expended their Ammunition, till they were re-lieved by a Detachment of Fifty Europeans and as many Seapoys, whom I fent under the Command of Captain Blackall of the 51st to bring them down, in which he has succeeded without Loss.

Under the Oppression of so dreadful a Missortunc, it is fatisfactory to me to state, that an Opinion formed of a Spirit of Defection in His Majesty's Malay Regiment is perfectly unfounded, some Individuals of that Corps had indeed deserted from Candi; but the great Majority, including all Officers of Influence and Respectability, were staunch to the End. Those who, after the English were separated from them, were forced into the Candian Service, are certainly not blameable, and of those, Five have already escaped and arrived here, who fay that all the others are ready to follow their Example.

The Princes of that Nation, who are fettled at Columbo, waited on me, as foon as the melancholy Intelligence arrived, to affure ime of their Regret, and Indignation at hearing that any Malays had deferted, and of their invariable Attachment to the British Government.

Deposition of the Linfcoryn arrived from Kandi.

MILIHANAGE JOANNES, of the Reformed Re. ligion, being duly fworn, depofeth, That the 6th of laft Month, he was fent, along with Twelve other Lafcoryns, by the Town-Major to Kandi; that he passed at Negumbo, where Doolies were put under their Charge, and that he arrived at Kandi, after a Route of about Twelve Days, and that the Laf-coryns delivered up the Doolies and other Stores which were under their Charge, to the English Gen-

After remaining there Three Days, they were ordered to return to Columbo with Twelve Doolies, in Eleven of which were fick Europeans, and one which contained Baggage.

These Doolies, with Twelve European Soldiers, as an Escort, passed the River, and stopped upon the opposite Side; that the same Day he heard Firing at Candy; that a great many Coolies, upon. hearing the firing, attempted to pals the River, but were stopped by a Malay Sentry

Several Candians approached the Place where the Doolies and the Sick were, and fired upon them, which was returned by the Europeans and Twelve Malays who were posted there. They fired till their Ammunition was expended, when the Malays jumped into the River, and the European Officer who commanded the Detachment did the fame. He does not know what became of all the European Soldiers, of whom he only faw Three cross the River, and one killed by the Candians. That the Lafears, who ferved the Cannon at that Poft, threw the Cannon into the River, and passed to Candi, and that he followed their Example and escaped to Candi; that he does not know what became of the Sick who were in the Doolies.

He went first to the Mandore, where he had been before, but finding many Candians there, he got into the Palace, and remained in the Court where the Malay Soldiers were. The Firing continued until Two o'Clock, when a White Flag was hoisted from the Palace, and the Firing ceased.

That Major Davie, the Captain of Artillery, and an European Malay Officer who spoke Malay, and Two or Three Malay Native Officers, went to the Adigaar, and returned foon afterwards with an Ola from the Adigaar, which he himfelf read, importing that the Whole might proceed to Trincomalće with-out receiving any Molestation, and that the Sick should be taken Care of and have Medicine given to them until they were well, when they might either go to Columbo or stay at Kandi.

The Garrison set out on Friday, with their Arms and Ammunition, at Five in the Evening to Alungantotte, where they remained all Night, exposed to a very heavy Rain, he the Deponent being with them.

On Saturday Morning Major Davie ordered a Raft to be made to pass the River; several Kandians came and demanded Mootoo Sawmy, who, they faid, was not at Kandi. They feized upon him and carried him off. Mootoo Sawmy gave his Sword to Major Davie. The Kandians told Major Davie that it was unnecessary to make Rufts, as next Day a Number of Doneys would be procured in which they might all pass.

Next Day however, Sunday, no Doney's came, and it was proposed to fend some Person across the River to fasten a Cord, by which they might pass: That he, the Deponent, Iwam across the River, and fastened a Cord to the other Side, after which he returned, but while he was doing fo a Kandian cut the Soon afterwards there came an Order from the Adigaar to Major Davie, to make his Men lay down their Arms, and return to Kaudi, which, after fome Time, they did; that between Kandi and Allungantotte, there is a Village called Gevantotte, where two Cannon were placed, and where the Malays were ordered to separate from the Rest, and proceed to Kandi, which they all did, except four Native Officers, who remained with Major Davie.

Soon afterwards all the Prisoners were taken, two by two, and delivered over to Kandians, who took them to a little Distance and cut their Heads off; that they were likewife going to kill the Women, but this was put a stop to by Order of the Adigaar. Major Davie, and the Captain of Artillery, with the Four Malay Officers who had not followed their Countrymen, were carried off, as he supposes, to the Adigaar. The Seapoys and Bengal Lafcars were not put to death. A Malay Servant of Captain Nouradin, whom he faw, told him that the Two English Officers and the Four Malays were with the Adigaar. Upon Monday he saw the Two English Officers, and was told they were to be carried to Hargaroon-ketti, where the King was. In the Evening of that Day the Adigaar collected all the Effects which the English had left, and ordered the Cannon to be fired without Ball, as a Mark of rejoicing.

That having heard afterwards that the Coolies, Lafcoryns, &c. might return, he fet out on Friday Night, and came to Columbo Yesterday Evening, 5th or July.

HAVE great Satisfaction in transmitting to your Lordship a Copy of Captain Gore's Letter to me of Yellerday's Date, giving an Account of his having captured a French Privateer off Cabrita Point, called L'Esperance, of Two Twelve and Two Six-Pounders, with Seventy Men; and de-throying another, by driving her on Shore. I beg Leave to refer your Lordship to the Particulars of the Capture, &c. as stated in Captain Gore's Letter; and beg Leave to add the high Opinion I entertain of Captain Gore's great Readiness in putting to Sea, and of his able Conduct throughout on the Occasion, which I had the Pleasure to witness.

His Majefly's Ship Medufa, off New Mole SIR, Head, Gibraltar, Dec. 8, 1803. A S from your Situation you could not see the Cause of the Manœuvres of His Majesty's Ship-Medufa this Day, I have the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Right Honorable Lord Nelson, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. that at Ten A. M. I observed a Cutter standing in for the Westward, and Two French Privateers (Felucea rigged) standing out from under Tarrise, and attack her. I immediately ordered both the Medufa's Cables to be flipped, and proceeded to her Assistance; as we approached they hauled from her.

'Favourable Circumstances of Wind and Current aided the Medufa's Sailing; and at Eleven o'Clock we opened our Fire upon one (as she crossed on the opposite Tack) with Effect; the other we ran close alongside of and captured, as per annexed Report, then tacked, and continued siring upon the other tacked. until she rowed amongst the Rocks, within a Shot of a Battery to the Westward of Cabrita Point. She received so many of our Shot, and from both her Yards being shot away, and nearly all her Oars broken, I have no doubt she is effectually destroyed. I understand she was called La Sorcier, of Two Twelve and Two Six-Pounders, with Seventy Men.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c. (Signed) JOHN GORE. George Hart, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Monmouth, and senior Officer in Gibraltar-Bay.
